

TNT Sports to Present First-Ever World Sevens Football 7v7 Soccer Tournament in North America, Dec. 5-7, on TNT, truTV & HBO Max

Schedule Unveiled for Fast-Paced Women's Event With Top Stars and Powerhouse Clubs from Across the Americas Competing for Landmark $5 Million Prize Pool

Coverage of Every Match, Along with Daily Pre & Post-Match Studio Shows, Live from Ft. Lauderdale

NEW YORK (November 18, 2025): TNT Sports will present the first-ever World Sevens Football 7v7 Soccer Tournament in North America, Friday, Dec. 5 through Sunday, Dec. 7, live on TNT, truTV, and HBO Max.

The fast-paced World Sevens Football (W7F) series has redefined women's soccer with elite talent from eight of the best clubs in the world, an immersive fan-first experience, and a groundbreaking $5 million prize pool, the largest in the sport, designed to fuel intense, high-stakes competition.

Building on its successful May 2025 debut in Portugal, W7F is again poised to deliver a high-energy three-day tournament. The powerhouse clubs from across the Americas scheduled to compete in Ft. Lauderdale are USA's Kansas City Current and San Diego Wave FC from the NWSL, Mexico's Club América and Tigres UANL, Canada's AFC Toronto, Brazil's Clube de Regatas do Flamengo, Colombia's Deportivo Cali, and Uruguay's Club Nacional de Football Femenino.

W7F is committed to advancing the women's game, providing a dynamic platform for players to showcase their skills, build their brands, and unlock new economic opportunities. The exhilarating format is built around player welfare, with rolling substitutions and short matches, that encourage and reward the artistry, creativity, and risk-taking on the ball that made players fall in love with the world's game as kids.

TNT Sports will produce domestic, English-language coverage for every match and on-site studio shows throughout the three-day tournament. TNT Sports will enhance the fan experience with English-language studio programming plus additional ancillary programming throughout the tournament. Furthermore, TNT Sports' Bleacher Report, House of Highlights, and B/R Football will produce and share content across their social platforms.

Additional programming and TNT Sports production details for W7F will be announced leading up to the event.
