WORLD SEVENS FOOTBALL ADDS MEXICO'S TIGRES FEMENIL AND COLOMBIA'S DEPORTIVO CALI FEMENINO TO STAR-STUDDED ROSTER FOR US-BASED TOURNAMENT DEBUT

Joining Mexico's Club América, Brazil's Flamengo and Canada's AFC Toronto for World Sevens Football's North American Debut

NEW YORK (October 24, 2025): World Sevens Football (W7F) continues to build its elite lineup for the upcoming North American debut by adding two heavyweight clubs to its December tournament: Tigres Femenil of Mexico and Deportivo Cali Femenino of Colombia. These celebrated teams join a growing roster of global talent set to compete in W7F's high-energy, three-day 7v7 showdown on December 5–7, 2025, at Beyond Bancard Field in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

“Welcoming Tigres and Deportivo Cali to our first-ever W7F tournament in North America is a powerful reflection of our mission to unite world-class clubs and expand global opportunities for female footballers,” said Sarah Cummins, CEO of World Sevens Football. “These teams represent the very best of their regions, with rich histories, passionate fanbases, and a deep commitment to growing the women’s game. We’re proud to offer a platform where elite talent can compete for one of the sport’s largest prize pools and gain international visibility. This tournament is about more than football; it’s about creating meaningful pathways for athletes and celebrating the excellence of clubs across the globe.”

About Tigres UANL Femenil — San Nicolás de los Garza, México

Tigres Femenil is a dominant force in Mexican women’s football, boasting six Liga MX Femenil championships and a reputation for excellence across the Americas. Known for their fierce competitiveness, tactical brilliance, and passionate fan base, Tigres has become a beacon for women’s football in the region. Their consistent success, including international friendlies and CONCACAF showings, has positioned them as one of the most respected clubs in the Western Hemisphere.

"We are honored to participate in the World Sevens Football tournament in North America," said Mauricio Culebro Galván, President of Tigres. "This innovative format can only benefit women's soccer. It is a dynamic, global tournament with great potential for growth, and it is a privilege to compete alongside some of the most respected clubs in the world to showcase the talent, passion, and dedication that define our team".

About Deportivo Cali Femenino — Cali, Colombia

Deportivo Cali Femenino has emerged as a trailblazer in South American football, capturing the Liga Femenina Profesional title in 2021 and consistently producing top-tier talent for Colombia's national team. With a commitment to youth development and a bold, attacking style, Deportivo Cali has earned its place among the continent's elite. Their participation in Copa Libertadores Femenina and continued investment in the women's game reflect a club deeply aligned with the future of football.

"Joining World Sevens Football's North American debut is a meaningful milestone for our club," said Eduardo Calderón, Vice President. "We see this as more than a tournament; this is a platform to amplify the voices and talents of women footballers across South America. Deportivo Cali has always believed in building from the ground up, investing in youth, and pushing the game forward. To be part of World Sevens Football, a global tournament that shares those values, is both an honor and a responsibility we embrace with pride."

Tournament

Building on the global momentum sparked by its electrifying debut in Estoril, World Sevens returns this December with its first-ever North American tournament, a high-octane, three-day showcase set to redefine the women's game. Eight elite clubs from across the globe will compete for a $5 million prize pool, one of the largest in women's football. The inaugural event delivered unforgettable moments: breakout stars, global icons, and a dramatic final where Bayern München edged Manchester United to claim the inaugural crown.

Tickets are now available, including premium sideline, party deck, pitchside, and VIP options. Each ticket includes access to the W7F Fan Fest, which will feature football activities, giveaways, and food and beverages for purchase. About Tigres UANL Femenil

Club Tigres is a soccer team belonging to the Autonomous University of Nuevo León and managed by CEMEX through its subsidiary, Sinergia Deportiva S.A. de C.V., since 2006. In 2017, the Liga MX Femenil (Women's League) and Tigres Femenil were created, and since then, the team has won six league titles (Clausura 2018, Clausura 2019, Guardianes 2020, Guardianes 2021, Apertura 2022, and Apertura 2023) and has won three Campeón de Campeonas (2020-2021, 2022-2023, and 2023-2024). It is the women's team with the most titles in Mexico, the first to host an NWSL team (Houston Dash) at its stadium, the first to form an alliance with an NWSL team (Angel City FC), and the creator of the Amazonas Cup, defeating FC Bayern Munich. They are the first team to launch a season ticket for Tigres Femenil matches and the team with the best attendance since the start of the Liga MX Femenil. Tigres has been recognized for 17 consecutive years as a Socially Responsible Company. It has the Tigres Foundation to support UANL students with financial scholarships, connections, home renovations, or English scholarships. We have the Amazonas X Más initiative as a commitment to the principles of gender equality and female empowerment in the context of Mexican soccer, and we were the first institution in Mexico to have two adapted soccer teams called Tigres PowerChair and Tigres Unión, among other actions.

About Deportivo Cali Femenino

Deportivo Cali Femenino is Colombia's most successful women's team, having won three league titles (2021, 2024, 2025) and reaching the CONMEBOL Libertadores Femenina final in 2025. The club is renowned for developing top Colombian talents through a strong commitment to both athletic and personal growth.

About World Sevens Football

World Sevens Football (W7F) is a global 7v7 women's football series that debuted in May 2025 with a successful event in Estoril, Portugal. Featuring fast-paced seven-a-side matches and a $5 million prize pool per tournament, W7F brings together top professional clubs in an exciting new format. The Fort Lauderdale tournament, taking place December 5–7, 2025, marks the series' expansion into North America, and will showcase eight elite clubs from across the Americas, each among the strongest in their respective leagues. W7F works in partnership with DAZN for worldwide broadcast, sub-licensing and marketing, as well as co exclusive sublicensee partners TNT, Univision and ESPN. Guided by a distinguished Player Advisory Council, W7F is committed to elevating women's football and providing unique opportunities for players and fans worldwide.
