WORLD SEVENS FOOTBALL CLOSES OUT ROSTER OF EIGHT TEAMS COMPETING AT ITS FIRST NORTH AMERICAN TOURNAMENT AND WELCOMES CLUB NACIONAL DE FOOTBALL FEMENINO OF URUGUAY

Uruguay's Powerhouse Women's Side Joins International Roster of Top Clubs Competing for $5,000,000 USD Prize Pool

NEW YORK CITY (November 13, 2025): World Sevens Football (W7F) today announced that Club Nacional de Football Femenino, one of South America's most storied clubs, has completed the lineup of eight women's teams playing in the first-ever W7F North American tournament taking place December 5-7, 2025, at Beyond Bancard Field in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The Uruguayan team joins a world-class field featuring the USA's Kansas City Current, San Diego Wave FC, Canada's AFC Toronto, Mexico's Club América and Tigres Femenil, Brazil's Clube de Regatas do Flamengo, and Colombia's Deportivo Cali Femenino. With a majority of the clubs currently leading or at the top levels of their respective leagues, the tournament will unite some of the most successful and exciting women's football clubs from across the Americas in a fast-paced 7v7 format.

"Bringing World Sevens Football to North America for this second edition is incredibly exciting," said Anita Asante, Football Legend and Member of the World Sevens Football Player Advisory Council. "What stands out most is the chance to welcome new teams and see how each club brings its own energy, approach, and tactical style to the pitch. I can't wait to watch how the strategy and style of play evolve in Fort Lauderdale and to see the incredible talent from across the Americas put on another unforgettable show for the fans."

"We're thrilled to welcome Club Nacional de Football Femenino as the final club to join our North American debut lineup," said Sarah Cummins, CEO of World Sevens Football. "Their legacy, success, and commitment to advancing women's football make the club a perfect fit for the spirit of World Sevens Football. Our tournament celebrates the global growth of the women's game, and Club Nacional de Football's participation underscores the strength, depth, and talent growth across South America. Fans in Fort Lauderdale are in for something truly special."

About Club Nacional de Football Feminino — Montevideo, Uruguay

Club Nacional de Football Femenino is one of South America's most historic and successful women's football clubs. Competing in Uruguay's Primera División Femenina, the team has been a dominant force since the league's inception in 1997, when they captured the inaugural national championship. With multiple league titles and strong showings in the CONMEBOL Libertadores Femenina, Nacional continues to set the benchmark for excellence in Uruguayan women's football.

"It is an honor for Club Nacional de Football to represent Uruguay and South America in the World Sevens Football tournament," said Tatiana Villaverde, board member and head of the women's team from Club Nacional de Football Femenino. "This is more than a competition; it's an opportunity to showcase our talent, culture, and passion for the game on a global stage. We are proud to join such an extraordinary lineup of clubs and look forward to hoisting the trophy in celebration at the end of the weekend."

As W7F continues to expand its mission of creating meaningful pathways for players worldwide, the organization will also stage a youth version of the World Sevens Football experience, open to girls' teams in the U9 through U12 age groups. Designed to provide the next generation of players with a platform to shine, the event will be held on the fields adjacent to the W7F tournament.

Tournament

The Fort Lauderdale event marks World Sevens Football's North American debut following its successful global launch in Estoril, Portugal, earlier this year. Eight elite clubs from across the Americas will compete for a $5 million prize pool, one of the largest in women's football. The tournament will be broadcast globally through DAZN, ensuring fans everywhere can experience the action.

Tickets are now available, including premium sideline, party deck, pitchside, and VIP options. Each ticket includes access to the W7F Fan Fest, featuring football activities, giveaways, and food and beverages available for purchase.
